

Anti-Slavery Policy

Last updated: 18 May 2026

1. Introduction

This policy sets out the steps taken by The Consultancy World to prevent modern slavery and human trafficking in its business and supply chains, in accordance with the requirements of the Modern Slavery Act 2015.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all persons working for us or on our behalf in any capacity, including employees, directors, officers, agency workers, seconded workers, volunteers, interns, agents, contractors, external consultants, third-party representatives, and business partners.

3. Definitions

For the purposes of this policy, the terms slavery, human trafficking, forced labour, and child labour are defined in accordance with the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and other relevant legislation.

4. Policy Statement

The Consultancy World has a zero-tolerance approach to slavery and human trafficking. We are committed to acting ethically and with integrity in all our business dealings and relationships and to implementing and enforcing effective systems and controls to ensure that slavery and human trafficking are not taking place anywhere in our own business or in any of our supply chains.

5. Responsibilities

All individuals to whom this policy applies are required to read, understand, and comply with it and to avoid any activity that might lead to a breach. Any suspected breach of this policy should be reported immediately in accordance with the Reporting section below.

6. Training and Awareness

The Consultancy World will provide training to staff to help them understand the signs of modern slavery and what to do if they suspect it is taking place within our business or supply chain.

7. Reporting

Any suspicions of slavery or human trafficking should be reported immediately to The Consultancy World. Reports can be made confidentially and reporters will be protected from retaliation. Reports should be made by email to support@theconsultancy.world.

8. Actions and Remedies

Any team member who breaches this policy will face disciplinary action, up to and including termination of engagement. We may also terminate our relationship with other individuals and organisations working on our behalf if they breach this policy.

9. Monitoring and Review

This policy will be regularly reviewed and updated as necessary. The Directors of the company are responsible for this policy and for reviewing the effectiveness of actions taken in response to concerns raised under it.

10. Approval and Implementation

This policy was approved by the Board of Directors on 18 May 2026 and will be reviewed annually. It applies across the organisation with immediate effect.

11. References

This policy is based on the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and other relevant UK and international legislation.

Contact Us

If you have any questions or concerns about this policy, please contact us:

- Email: support@theconsultancy.world
- Website: www.theconsultancy.world

The Consultancy for Business Solutions Ltd t/a The Consultancy World is registered in England and Wales under company number 14820561. Our registered office address is held on the Companies House register and can be viewed at find-and-update.company-information.service.gov.uk.